PROGRAM DESCRIPTIONS

All Things Considered

Robert Siegel and Michele Norris host NPR's evening news magazine.

Americana

From coast to coast, Matt Frei presents an insider guide to the people and the stories shaping America today.

The Animal House

The Animal House is a weekly discussion that explores the latest in animal science, pet behavior, and wildlife conservation. We hope to deepen human understanding of animals and explain the powerful bonds that link us to the animal world. Our goal is to be fun, substantive, and appealing to a broad audience -- both those with pets and those without them.

As It Happens

This informative and irreverent current affairs program calls and interviews newsmakers.

Assignment

A weekly current affairs program that reports from locations around the world, examining topical issues from a global perspective for a global audience. This is the program where the BBC's correspondents report first-hand and in-depth on events shaping the world.

The Big Broadcast

Legendary radio personality Ed Walker offers listeners priceless recordings of popular radio programs from the '30s, '40s and '50s.

Bob Edwards Weekend

Bob Edwards hosts this interview showcase that highlights the life and work of interesting people, from newsmakers, historians, and authors to artists, actors, and regular folks, too.

Business Daily

With a broader agenda than World Business Report, Business Daily brings more context to the big stories in business and economics. It includes interviews with newsmakers, key global players, and those at the cutting edge of new ideas, plus topics such as technology and innovation, business ethics, the environment and management.

Car Talk

This irreverent talk show hosted by Tom & Ray Magliozzi is about much more than car maintenance.

The Diane Rehm Show

For more than 25 years, The Diane Rehm Show has offered listeners thoughtful and lively conversations on an array of topics with many of the most distinguished people of our times. The Friday edition includes Diane's two-hour "News Round-up."

The Diane Rehm Show: Friday News Roundup

Each Friday, Diane Rehm and guests explore the week's top domestic and international news stories.

The Documentary

The BBC produces and distributes radio documentaries on a variety of topics.

Door to Door

Door to Door is Metro Connection's weekly trip around the region. Each week, WAMU 88.5's Metro Connection reaches across D.C., Maryland and Virginia to gather the sounds and stories that capture the current events, culture and personalities driving the Washington region.

The Forum

Bridget Kendall presents The Forum, the show which brings together three innovative thinkers from different cultures and perspectives to put forward new ideas.

 Locally produced by WAMU's Bluegrass Country

PROGRAM DESCRIPTIONSAmerican Routes

Produced in New Orleans, American Routes explores the shared stylistic and cultural threads of our nation's music – and how they are distinguished, including blues and jazz, gospel and soul, old-time country and rockabilly, Cajun and zydeco, Tejano and Latin, roots rock and pop, avant-garde and classical.

Bluegrass Breakdown

Dave Higgs brings listeners an emotionally-charged, heart-rending, paint-peeling, splinter-kicking one-hour bluegrass show, featuring scintillating conversation and live music with some of the best in bluegrass live from Nashville, Tenn.

Bluegrass Gospel USA!

Bluegrass Gospel USA! is a music intensive show featuring the very best in bluegrass gospel music by the greatest acoustic artists of our time, and hosted by popular radio personality Bill Miller.

Bluegrass Master Class

Each week on this historical series, one of our expert hosts brings to light the talent, personalities, and music that make up the rich tradition of bluegrass. Learn more about your favorite song or just reminisce. And, don't worry, there won't be a quiz!

Bluegrass Review

Each week, host Phil Nusbaum presents current and historical bluegrass music, interviews, commentary, and the "Gems of Bluegrass" segment: dissecting a single musical concept.

Bluegrass Signal

Produced in Oakland, Calif., Peter Thompson brings you an hour-long themed show filled with classic as well as recent bluegrass releases, background information and lots of music from the "left coast."

The Bob Webster Show

Bob Webster hosts three hours of bluegrass in the middle - middle of the week, that is. Tune in for straight-ahead bluegrass, featuring the best of the top bands in the business, the new releases, some of your favorite classics, and an occasional live interview with bluegrass artists sharing the latest news in their careers.

Capital Americana

Hosted by Jen Hitt and produced by WAMU's Bluegrass Country, this show highlights new acoustic American roots music, with occasional live interviews and performances.

The Chris Teskey Show

Longtime music broadcaster Chris Teskey, who discovered bluegrass in 1977 when he was exposed to the music of the Seldom Scene, features traditional and progressive bluegrass music, live interviews, and performances from some of the most popular acts in bluegrass.

The Dick Spottswood Show

Concentrating on music from the 1920s through 1950s, but reaching back to the 1890s and the beginnings of recorded sound, each of Dick's programs brings listeners a surprising collection of recordings - from cylinders to 78's and LP's - highlighting the many facets of folk culture in the United States.

Editor's Picks

Each week, WAMU's Bluegrass Country brings you exciting and diverse programs that highlight a particular artist or aspect of bluegrass.

etown

etown creates a constantly expanding "community on the air" by featuring diverse music and interviews with a wide variety of authors, poets, and policymakers. With etown's inspiring "e-chievement" awards, listeners all over the country are reminded that individual efforts really do make a difference.

Foster's Corner

Bill Foster brings us three hours of great bluegrass music from the traditional to the modern – in the road, and on the edge. A familiar voice on WAMU 88.5 since the early 1980's, Bill delves into his extensive collection of bluegrass music including LPs, tapes, and CDs each week.

The Free For All

The perfect cure for those mid-week doldrums! Join Echo as she spins some contemporary and progressive bluegrass and Americana music, sure to get you tapping your foot and singing along. Grassify Your Life!

The Gary Henderson Show

In 1967, Gary Henderson helped to start the tradition of bluegrass on WAMU 88.5 as the producer of the show Bluegrass Unlimited. He's still at it today, with his live Saturday show spinning contemporary hits and "mossy old favorites."

The Katy Daley Show

Katy Daley is in the studio live every weekday morning for three hours of bluegrass. With more than 25 years of radio experience behind her, Katy celebrates the music, interviews musicians, previews special programming, and presents features like "Musician's Tips."

The Lee Michael Demsey Show

Lee has hosted bluegrass programs on WAMU 88.5's airwaves for more than 25 years. He continues his tradition of spinning contemporary bluegrass for you, live in the studio, each weekday. His Saturday program focuses on the great singer/songwriters in bluegrass and acoustic music.

Lonesome Pine RFD

From WFDU in Teaneck, N.J., host Carol Beaugard offers a mix of contemporary and classic bluegrass along with historical notes on the music, industry notes, current concert information, interviews and "backstage stories" about the artists.

Mountain Stage

Mountain Stage is a two-hour live performance radio program produced by West Virginia Public Broadcasting featuring some of the world's greatest artists in an intimate and relaxed atmosphere with a live-broadcast edge.

Music From Foggy Hollow

Every week, Mike Kear broadcasts three hours of jokes, music news, and bluegrass on Sydney's Hawkesbury Radio and then packages it up and ships it to us.

The Old Home Place

Each week, mandolin player Lisa Kay Howard spins three hours of contemporary and traditional bluegrass, and gives listeners a peek into the local bluegrass scene.

Old Time Jam

Banjo player and old time enthusiast Rosemarie Neilson highlights the genre that preceded bluegrass; old time. Rosemarie also features field recordings of old time jams and the oxymoronic new old time musicians.

Open Mic

Each week we "open the mic" for a two hour program featuring a rotating cast of hosts and themes including historical shows, concerts, and interviews.

The Ray Davis Show

Ray brings you some of the best bluegrass around, from prison songs and "plum pitiful" tunes to the great train rides - and train wrecks - of bluegrass music.

Stained Glass Bluegrass

Since 1974, listeners have been waking up on Sunday morning to gospel bluegrass on WAMU. Bob Webster continues that tradition with four hours of the gospel favorites, old hymns, and spiritual bluegrass songs.

The Thistle and Shamrock

Host Fiona Ritchie explores the evolving Celtic musical traditions of Europe and North America, from the ancient tradition of reels, jigs, and ballads to the pulse of new music: an exuberant blend of rhythms, voices and instruments.

The Tom "Cat" Reeder Show

Country Radio Hall of Famer Tom "Cat" Reeder plays a mix of classic country and bluegrass, and brings his unique sense of humor to the Bluegrass Country airwaves. He'll be tickled plum twist legged to see you.

Traditions with Mary Cliff

Mary Cliff presents blues, ballads, ethnic, and traditional music, plus plenty of concert announcements on her live four hour show.

Neal Conan hosts this national call-in program, NPR's midday news talk show.

Tell Me More

The new NPR talk show Tell Me More, with host Michel Martin, brings fresh voices and perspectives to public radio.

To The Best Of Our Knowledge

To The Best Of Our Knowledge, hosted by Jim Fleming, cracks open the world and the ideas that fuel its engine. Each show revolves around a theme, and features interviews that explore the culture, the debate, the stories, the science and the actual sound of the topic being explored.

Whad'Ya Know

Join host Michael Feldman for the popular long-running comedy-interview-quiz show from Wisconsin Public Radio.

WireTap

Enter the mind of Jonathan Goldstein. It's a nice place to visit, but you wouldn't want to live there. Part monologue and part telephone conversation, WireTap ushers you into the endearingly odd, funny universe of Jonathan's friends and family. WireTap was awarded the Gold World Medal for Best Regularly Scheduled Comedy Program at The New York Festivals in 2006.

With Good Reason

With Good Reason features in-depth interviews with leading scholars from Virginia public universities about topics from the expanding universe to winemaking, and everything else in between.

Witness

Witness - history as told by the people who were there. Five days a week we will be talking to people who lived through moments of history to bring you a personal perspective on world events.

World Briefing

World Briefing brings listeners up to date with the latest news from correspondents around the world. It incorporates news bulletins on the hour and the half-hour, and provides modular coverage of background analysis, business and sports.

World Café

World Café with host David Dye serves up an eclectic mix of music from blues, rock, and world, to folk and alternative country, with live performances and interviews with celebrated and emerging artists.

World Update

A one-hour global news and current affairs program designed to brief listeners—mainly in the U.S. but also around the world—on the news and to break news and move stories forward in an engaging and authoritative way. The program includes news, interviews, features, reports, debates and discussions.

World, Have Your Say

World, Have Your Say is a ground-breaking, live global interactive program on radio every weekday and online 24/7. It invites World Service listeners and BBC online users to share their views and questions on key issues with a worldwide audience.

XPoNential Radio

XPoNential Radio is a new 24/7 Triple-A (adult album alternative) service produced by WXPN. XPoNential will showcase an array of artists and music with a unique mix of emerging and heritage contemporary musicians. This music genre is threaded through NPR's newsmagazine programming both in the content and in the interstitial breaks and is very recognizable to public radio audiences. For this initial phase, XPoNential features eight hours of fresh programming daily, repeated three times, and is unhosted. To get a sense of this music service, visit www.xpn.org.

PROGRAM DESCRIPTIONS

All Things Considered

Robert Siegel and Michele Norris host NPR's evening news magazine.

Americana

From coast to coast, Matt Frei presents an insider guide to the people and the stories shaping America today.

The Animal House

The Animal House is a weekly discussion that explores the latest in animal science, pet behavior, and wildlife conservation. We hope to deepen human understanding of animals and explain the powerful bonds that link us to the animal world. Our goal is to be fun, substantive, and appealing to a broad audience -- both those with pets and those without them.

As It Happens

This informative and irreverent current affairs program calls and interviews newsmakers.

Assignment

A weekly current affairs program that reports from locations around the world, examining topical issues from a global perspective for a global audience. This is the program where the BBC's correspondents report first-hand and in-depth on events shaping the world.

The Big Broadcast

Legendary radio personality Ed Walker offers listeners priceless recordings of popular radio programs from the '30s, '40s and '50s.

Bob Edwards Weekend

Bob Edwards hosts this interview showcase that highlights the life and work of interesting people, from newsmakers, historians, and authors to artists, actors, and regular folks, too.

Business Daily

With a broader agenda than World Business Report, Business Daily brings more context to the big stories in business and economics. It includes interviews with newsmakers, key global players, and those at the cutting edge of new ideas, plus topics such as technology and innovation, business ethics, the environment and management.

Car Talk

This irreverent talk show hosted by Tom & Ray Magliozzi is about much more than car maintenance.

Coastal Connection

Reporter Bryan Russo will interview and profile a wide range of local advocates, elected officials, and artists and musicians who live and work on Maryland's Eastern Shore.

The Diane Rehm Show

For more than 25 years, The Diane Rehm Show has offered listeners thoughtful and lively conversations on an array of topics with many of the most distinguished people of our times. The Friday edition includes Diane's two-hour "News Round-up."

The Diane Rehm Show: Friday News Roundup

Each Friday, Diane Rehm and guests explore the week's top domestic and international news stories.

The Documentary

The BBC produces and distributes radio documentaries on a variety of topics.

Door to Door

Door to Door is Metro Connection's weekly trip around the region. Each week, WAMU 88.5's Metro Connection reaches across D.C., Maryland and Virginia to gather the sounds and stories that capture the current events, culture and personalities driving the Washington region.

The Forum

Bridget Kendall presents The Forum, the show which brings together three innovative thinkers from different cultures and perspectives to put forward new ideas.

Fresh Air

Host Terry Gross opens the window on contemporary arts and issues with guests from worlds as diverse as literature and economics.

Global Business

This weekly business program for a general audience reports on major business and workplace issues, emerging trends, and significant personalities in global business, from many different countries and cultures around the world.

HARDtalk

HARDtalk is the hard-hitting flagship news programme shown on BBC World News and the BBC News channel. HARDtalk asks the difficult questions and gets behind the stories that make the news - from international political leaders to entertainers; from corporate decision-makers to ordinary individuals facing huge challenges. The half hour interview is the result of detailed research and in-depth investigations.

Health in a Heartbeat

A daily radio series that provides consumer-health information and the latest news on medical research, patient-care breakthroughs and health-care industry trends.

Heart and Soul

This program has thought-provoking and illuminating reflections on a wide range of personal, moral, spiritual, and topical issues.
